

Representation Measures: U.S.

Among the benchmarked companies, the most widely tracked measures were for women and people of color. Men were significantly less tracked than women - fewer than 35% tracked men whereas 50% tracked women.

What categories do you track to measure representation for U.S. employees?

*For the purpose of this survey People of Color includes African American, Asian, Native American and Hispanic.

of Companies